FIRST OF THE SERIES THIRTEEN SHORT STORIES
WILL APPEAR IN NEXT SATURDAYS HULL TIMES.

AN ELOPEMENT IN LOW LIFE," Due of Mr. Robinson's boldly-drawn pictures of humble is in London. The stroy is tracted with great skill, and has a strong pathetic interest.

A DUEL IN THE SEA, exceedingly powerful story of love and jealousy, working up to its tragic climax in the shape of a life and death struggle in the sea.

THE KING OF BRASS,"

THE GHOST'S OPERA," a ghost story of a very striking and ginal kind. A young composer is in-red by the spirit of a long-deceased cestor to complete a certain opera which ter had left unfinished of his doct.

A WILLOW - PATTERN ROMANCE, By H. PARE BOWDEN. By H. PANK BOWDEN.

cribes the rescue by two young Englishmen
of an English girl, who had been adopted by a Chinese Mandarin, and who is being forced by him into a marriage with another Chinese dignitary. The rescues plot to waylay the bridal procession; and, after an execting chase, succeed in making their

A STRAYED SHEEP,"
By F. NISHET and O. BARRON.
This is a humorous and satirical story of driven by the loss of a fortune is depths of crime, and reconverted to re
bility when he learns that his money
after all.

"IS IT A MAN?"
By J. M. BARRE. An absorbing story of theatrical life, told with this popular author's wonted vivacity and humour.

A CLEVER SWORD STROKE,

By DAYID KER.
story of military lite in India by one of the best known writers of romantic fiction. An Indian, who has been befriended by a young English officer, repays him by saving his life and restoring him to liberty, when captured in an attack by some hill tribes many years after.

JOHN VEALE'S REVENGE,

A GAMBLER'S WIFE, e story of a woman's love and devotion to a husband who is a confirmed and rockles gambler. Part of the action passes, a Monte Carlo, and there is abundance o local colouring and dramatic incident.

A CHANCE ENCOUNTER, Tells how a young girl was rescued at the last moment from a distasteful marriage, forced upon her by worldly and designing parents.
