Dear Jeff,

Martin Melaugh from the CAIN Project recently sent me a copy of your Email dated 4 June 2008 about the deaths of Francis Benson and Anthony McCleave.

I assume you mean Francis Benson who was killed on 25 November 1973, and Anthony McCleave who was killed on 3 June 1979. There is no information in the public domain which indicates that these two killings were politically motivated and directly linked to the conflict in Northern Ireland. If you have any information that would link both killings to the conflict, could you please contact me again, via Martin Melaugh at the CAIN Project, and I can then reconsider if these two deaths should be added to the Index of Deaths.

Yours faithfully,

M. Sutton
