

FÉILE an PHOBAIL in association with OUTBURST Queer Arts Festival presents

seeing ourselves

lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender lives in the media panel discussion ● thurs 5th aug ● 7pm ● conway mill

From soaps to drama, local newspapers to chat radio, how does the media influence our attitudes to LGBT people?

Does it reflect who we are and do we have any real influence in how we are portrayed?

As part of Féile's 2010 programme of talks, Outburst Queer Arts Festival asks the big questions in a lively discussion about how we are seen and how we see ourselves.

Panel: James Doherty ('Brookside' writer/former NUJ President); Robert Toner (Lisburn LGBT Group); Ruth McCarthy (Outburst); and local media representatives Chair: Marie Quierly followed by GAYLIDH! LGBT céilí 9.30pm

with musicians from Copperplate Céilí Band & caller Ronan Eastwood

ALL WELCOME

kindly supported by

